

PILOTS POINT JUNIOR SAILING PROGRAM
RULES AND EXPECTED BEHAVIOR

- 1. NO ONE IS ALLOWED ON DOCKS OR BOATS WITHOUT U.S.C.G. APPROVED PFD (LIFE JACKET) ON AND ZIPPED. TYPE III IS RECOMMENDED.
2. I agree to assume the expenses of repair and/or replacement of program equipment damaged as a result of my child's reckless or irresponsible behavior as deemed by the Program Director.
3. No one is allowed on docks without supervision.
4. No littering on land or water. Pavilion, sailing school dock, bathrooms, boathouse, and boats must be kept clean and "ship-shape."
5. Personal property is the responsibility of the student and not Pilots Point or the sailing instructors. Electronics are not recommended at camp and not allowed on docks or boats.
6. No pushing, shoving, running, hitting, profanity. No disruptive behavior, disrespectful gestures, actions, or language. Sailing School staff is responsible for you on land and on the water – respect them, pay close attention to them, ask questions if you don't understand or need help.
7. No jumping off boats without instructor's permission. If they say you can swim, it is important to stay near your boat so you can easily get back in and so that it doesn't drift away.
8. Stay in the area where the instructors and other students are, unless you ask instructor's permission to leave.

VIOLATION OF RULES:

First Violation: the junior sailor will be reprimanded by one of the instructors.

Second Violation: the Head Instructor or Program Director will speak to the junior sailor's parents.

Third Violation: the offending junior sailor will be suspended for one day by the Program Director.

Continued abuse of the rules by a participant after a parent is notified will result in expulsion from the program. (Fee will not be refunded)

Please feel free to contact the Program Director if you have any questions or concerns.
